OCCUPATIONAL MENTAL HEALTH & ILLNESS 101

>>> WITH DR. WENDY STANYON

MEET THE SPEAKER:

DR. WENDY STANYON is a mental health nurse and academic committed to raising greater awareness about mental illness. She led the development of Mindsight, an online educational resource to promote mental health awareness, reduce stigma, and teach users basic strategies and resources for supporting individuals living with mental illness.

It's time we have the conversation about mental health in your workplace!

Mental illness is considered the number one cause of workplace disability in Canada. Yet, stigma around the topic is a key reason why many Ontarians don't talk about mental illness in their workplaces.

This half-day workshop is your chance to become more informed and talk more openly about mental health in the workplace. Join us in promoting a greater understanding of occupational mental health and illness.

This discussion will also include a demonstration of Mindsight.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: WSIB Representatives, RTW Specialists, Health & Safety, Human Resources, Workplace Leadership and Union Stewards.

Limited seating.
